An Urgent Letter :

To the Church of Jesus Christ in South Africa

Part 5 (a) : The Demonic Traps of Unforgiveness, Bitterness and Shared Corporate Racial Guilt

This entire Letter to the RSA Church is not for idle chat or mild curiosity, but calls for action in repentant obedience and prayer unto God. By its very nature it is limited in exploring in greater depth the issues that beset the RSA Church, though all we need is Scripture to know something is seriously wrong. Scripture reveals what it is, for Scripture is our full and final authority for all of life and conduct, (and is also the Divinely given historical record of the activity of God with man), from which we gain much understanding, if we know His Word intimately and obey Him wholeheartedly.

Part 1 was the Introduction to the Letter. It is an essential, foundation-laying Introduction and so I encourage you if you have not read the Introduction yet, or the Parts which follow it, to do so. Much more is at stake than you likely realise.

The issues raised here below, and in the Letter at large are given in broad brush strokes, and are not dealt with in fine detail, for that is beyond the scope of this Urgent Letter to the RSA Church : they are basically referred to (broad brush strokes) plus a bit, as I have been led. Broad brush strokes are not only a generalisation (although they apply to the greater number calling themselves Christian) but they reveal largely unrecognised underlying problems in and with the RSA Church. The intention is to raise the alarm and give enough information to be able to clearly identify specific spiritual problems that are in urgent need of attention, so you can get to prayer in repentance, and for revival of the RSA Church. Of course, not all the sin problems are addressed. There are many more. Look around you…just make sure what you see re sin is so reflected as such in the Bible. Look first to YOURSELF. Do not make any excuse for your sin. God has not given us that permission. Excuses only dig us deeper into the mess. Confess till the bag is completely empty….

Unforgiveness and hidden guilt/sin i.a. are like spiritual walls in the way blocking God from blessing the South African Church, and thus the country, and invite the demonic torturers in. Sin undealt with doesn't just disappear because time passes. It hangs around causing bitterness and trouble until it is washed, cleansed by the blood of Jesus, through real confession and repentance.

i. Spiritual/Physical Torture for Unforgiveness

Matthew 18: 21-35

23 … "the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents [millions of dollars] was brought to him. Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt. At this the servant fell on his knees before him. 'Be patient with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay back everything.' The servant's master took pity on him, cancelled the debt and let him go. But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him and began to choke him. 'Pay back what you owe me!' he demanded. His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.' *But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened. "Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I cancelled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?' In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed. "This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart." [All emphasis mine. lwa]

Read this passage again, perhaps even several times.

In this passage, Jesus tells a story about a servant who begged for mercy and was forgiven a massive, multi-million rand debt by his master. But as soon as he walked free, he grabbed a fellow servant who owed him a tiny amount of money and threw him in prison when he could not pay immediately. When the master (=God) found out, he was furious (God was furious) and (God) handed the unforgiving servant over to the torturers (/oppressors), until he paid all he owed (this could mean eternal death as no-one can pay for their sins; that is why Jesus was given by God).

If you refuse to forgive someone, God hands you over to spiritual tormentors (demons) until you have paid what you owe.

Matthew 6 : 12; 14, 15

"And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. ["As" means in the same way, to the same extent that we have forgiven---if we have forgiven them]

[14] For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. [15] But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins."

This is not theoretical. When God forgives our sin He "puts it away from us". He placed it on Jesus on the Cross and punished Him for our sin. We are expected to do the same for the sins another has committed against us, "to put their sin away", to remove the sin from our reckoning against that person, for Jesus died for the sins of the world, for their sin too. This is whether the offending person is a believer or not. It means we are prepared to live with the consequences of the other persons sin, suffering for it if needed while not holding the act against them. We are called to be living sacrifices unto the LORD, and this is one aspect of that. We take the sin and consequences of their sin against us upon us and set them free. This is love in another form of action.

Therefore if we refuse to forgive another their offence against us, we are treading a path directly opposite to that of which God did for us in His Son, Jesus Christ, and in direct opposition to the Divine expectation God has that we should forgive those who sin against us, and in direct opposition to Jesus' example on the Cross. This is loving your enemy…even as Christ loved us and went to the Cross for our sin, so setting us free to become like Him.

We are called to become who and what we are in Christ; to become Christ-like; be filled with Holy Spirit; reflect the very nature and likeness of Christ in our spiritual rebirth.

Extending forgiveness to others is true evidence of a heart that has genuinely received God's grace. It is difficult, and it is a choice we make. Being a living sacrifice is hard, but it is NOT optional. You cannot expect God to forgive you your sin against Him, which you do not deserve, and then be unforgiving and merciless towards someone else who has sinned against you. The scale of the comparison is ridiculous in its crushing truth.

Job 1 : 1—12—22 (note vs 22, RSA Church); 2 : 1—10 : satan has power we discount, to our detriment. (Before the uninformed howl goes up that he is a defeated foe---yes, I know. And I know in Christ is our victory, too !)

satan has power (he seems to need certain permission to use it, from God, at least at times ?) to inflict illness, disease, pain and all sorts of hardship and destruction. Jobs family killed, but not Job. The Sabeans and Chaldeans were summoned and used to plunder the donkeys , oxen, camels and kill the attending servants. Huge fire from the sky fell and consumed the 7000 sheep and servants, but one, so he lived to bring the report. And a mighty wind rose and collapsed the house where his sons and daughters were feasting, killing them all, but one servant—to bring the bad news to Job.

Unforgiveness leads to bitterness of spirit. The wrong done to you just never leaves your heart and thoughts, and you chew it over often, and it disturbs you, over and over. Hurt wells up again. Anger, too. Revenge and malicious thoughts fly through your mind. Bitterness against the offending person, and even often against God for not "preventing it" wells up. satan loves this for he relishes pain and hurt in God's children. Unforgiveness opens the door to the demonic realm to unsettle, disturb, interfere with and steal from you your peace in Christ. AND it is God Who hands you over to the torturers, for your ungracious, malicious disobedience of unforgivenness. The disobedience is against God. The malice is against the one you are commanded to forgive. Temporal judgement and punishment result. It is not theoretical.

Unforgivenness is serious to God. If He, in His grace and mercy, can forgive you your sin/blatant hatred of Him/enmity towards Him/rebellion against Himself, Who is the Creator of the universe---then a mere, puny human beings' "sin" against you is not anywhere on the scale no matter the offence/crime---no matter how hard it is to forgive. But forgiveness is a CHOICE : an ACT of obedience to God. It is not open to debate. It is a Divine expectation of those He has forgiven.

Plain and simple : this is why so many Christians of all demographic origins in South Africa have no peace, suffer from constant anxiety, see their finances constantly dry up, things forever breaking, have ongoing work troubles, and live with difficult relationships and spiritual poverty, poor physical health inter alia. Life just seems out of balance and very uncertain, uneven, disturbed, uneasy, swirling and unsettled, full of fear and dismay. (See also Leviticus 26, all.)

The demonic realm are the torturers. (cf. Revelation 9 : 1—6, inter alia. Here they are specifically barred from tormenting God's people, but they were given power to torment the godless. See 1 Corinthians 5 : 1—5 and 2 Corinthians 2 : 5—11---both passages refer to the same incident of the sexually immoral man. Discipline by the Church body, then forgiveness in this case---note satans role in this. Don't miss it).

God hands His unforgiving people over to the torturers, in His anger that they who have been forgiven so much (vile rebellion and bitter hatred against God) refuse to forgive another person, who has sinned against them. The scale of this comparison is near impossible to grasp, as we have no real understanding of the huge enormity of sin against Holy God, Who is infinite.

However, forgiveness in obedience to God reveals an attitude of humility and thankfulness to God for His immeasurable grace in forgiveness received, and releases you from the attention of the torturers through your obedience to God, even if it takes time to properly forgive. You are released from satans power over you to do you harm through having a bitter heart and thoughts, and he can no longer do you harm through the memories of what happened. God will judge and recompense re the offence done. He says : "Vengeance is Mine. I will repay."

The result of unconfessed sin is a disturbed, unhappy relationship with God. Your sin comes between you and God. Let this NOT be underestimated in its effects of coldness of your heart, selfishness of attitude, disinterest in honouring God, lusting after the world, churchianity etc. Notice, Gods judgment and discipline on you exposes what is already your hearts condition; He does not place these things there : He exposes them to you and others who can see, the cause of your sin and thus the consequence of your sin, but also as a call to you to return to Him with all your heart through confession, repentance and obedience so your relationship with Him can grow and develop. Leviticus 26 : 40—45; 2 Chronicles 7 : 14; 1 John 1 : 9---2 : 2.

A bitter national Church is a sin-weakened, powerless and tormented Church. It is a disobedient Church. It is a Church that dishonours God. It is a Church under Gods strong discipline via the hands of the torturers (/oppressors)--- demonic powers. They are running rampant across the length and breadth of our land.

As a human being, a son of God through His grace to me in Christ, I do have some understanding of the difficulty and pain in forgiving an exceedingly painful act against myself (which has long been forgiven), and the same for another person who I grievously hurt. What did God in Christ (Christ the sinless, perfect Son of God) say to the Father from the cross in excruciating physical and spiritual pain, for those who perverted justice, lied and who were torturing Him THE Son of God, Immanuel to an agonising death : "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." See Matthew 5 : 44, 45; Luke 23 : 34; Matthew 18 : 21-35.

Christian, here is an unmistakeable, easy word of Jesus to understand, and though at times it is not easy to apply with an open heart in forgiveness as an act of OBEDIENCE to God, because self always wants its will and some vengeance, nevertheless, failure/refusal to do so invites the torturers to be assigned to you as part of God's discipline and anger at such callous disobedience. God has not left this open to discussion. He expects us to obey. It is written….. Confess (all sin). Repent. Forgive and find your relationship with the LORD improve.

ii. A Defiled Land: Leviticus 18, all

Sexual sin defiles (defiles : makes dirty, unclean, impure) a person, a family, a congregation, town/city and a nation. All sin does, but sexual sin especially per Leviticus 18. Sexual sin abounds in the RSA Church from pew to pulpit : pornography is so easily available. Rape, including homosexual rape and all its spin-off perversions and rape of minors, paedophilia. Incest is more common than one thinks. Adultery is common. Homosexuality. Sex trafficking. Sex outside marriage, including in all degrees of relationship that are prohibited. (See Leviticus 18). Bestiality happens more often than you think.

Do you honestly think God is blind and / or senile ? Do you think God "turns a blind eye" to sexual sin, because we cannot/refuse to control our physical bodies' lustful urges ?

When the people of God in a country, especially those who claim the name of Jesus, live in sexual rebellion against God, the land itself gets spiritually sick, diseased. Leviticus warns that such land will literally "vomit out its inhabitants." Leviticus 18 : 24---28

Look at South Africa today: a collapsing power grid, irrational and illogical administration and governance decisions (eg making people who use free solar power pay penalties for using it !!) broken water systems, high crime rate especially rape and murder, sewage running in the streets, drinking water running in the streets, a shattered economy, infrastructure collapse, utter incompetence in politics and governing administration of every government department and a large number of people, including family members and friends have left or are leaving the country for fear for their safety and no employment in an anaemic economy that is bleeding to death. This isn't just bad politics; it is the spiritual-physical reaction of a defiled land vomiting out its people because it has become defiled by especially sexual sin (not only) by the people who should be living holy lives unto God through faith in Jesus Christ : the RSA Church.

The prosperity/fate of a country lies NOT firstly in its politicians. It lies firstly in the holiness or otherwise of God's people, the Church. Let me repeat this for it is critical to understand.

The prosperity/fate of a country lies NOT firstly in its politicians. It lies firstly in the holiness/faithfulness/obedience, or otherwise, of God's people, the Church. Leviticus 26, all. Matthew 5 : 13, 14; Galatians 6 : 7, 8

Below, how the spiritual state, humility, and prayers of God's people influence a nations blessing and restoration:

Matthew 5 : 13-14: "You are the salt of the earth..." (Salt---the condition / state of Gods people in holiness and loving, willing, prayerful obedience to God, acts as a preservative against all corruption in society).

Jeremiah 29 : 7: "Also, 1.) seek the peace and prosperity of the city [nation*] to which I have carried you into exile. 2.)* Pray to the Lord for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper." [This applies to our nation/country too. It is a principle.]

1 Timothy 2 : 1-3: "I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people—for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness."

Scripture also makes clear that the moral character and administrative justice of political leaders directly affect a nation's prosperity or downfall and this is under Gods sovereign rule to introduce or bring to cessation.

Proverbs 14:34: "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin condemns any people. [RSA Church, do you HEAR this ??]

Proverbs 29:2: "When the righteous thrive, the people [nation] rejoice; when the wicked rule, the people [nation] groan*."[The latter is true of South Africa. We are experiencing Scripture live.]

Proverbs 29:4: "By justice a king gives a country stability, but those who are greedy for bribes tear it down."[Here the actions of the political rulers have consequences. Yet they are a reflection of the state of God's people, today the Church in RSA, in both examples referred to in the Proverb.]

Isaiah 3:4-5 – "I will make boys their princes, and infants shall rule over them. And the people will oppress one another, every one his fellow and every one his neighbor; the youth will be insolent to the elder, and the despised to the honorable." [When a nation turns from God, He may allow immature/incompetent or unjust rulers to govern as a consequence.]

Jeremiah 18:7-10 – "If at any time I declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it [for the evil it does/has done], and if that nation... turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I intended to do to it."

2 Chronicles 7 : 14: *"If my people, 1.) who are called by my name, 2.) will humble themselves [before Me] 3.) and pray and seek my face 4.) and turn from their wicked ways, then [and not before] I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

The Bible teaches that governments and nations remain under God's supreme authority regardless of human positions, for God is the Sovereign LORD over ALL creation:

Daniel 2:21: "He [God] changes times and seasons; He [God] removes kings and sets up kings."

God warned through many of His prophets that He would bring enemies from the north to attack Israel, Judah and Jerusalem for their defiant, wanton rebellion against Him. They mocked that (cf. Galatians 6 : 7) and ignored Him through His prophets. He did exactly what He warned about.

They, as today, just could not---refused to---believe God would treat them like that. THEY were the people of God ! Judgment only happened to, was deserved by, the godless pagan peoples all around them who did not worship the true God. How WRONG they were. In His kindness, goodness and compassion all God is doing is calling His people back to Himself, to live and move and have their being in Him, according to His commands, will, decrees, and if they do, and to the extent they do, to enjoy all His benefits. What is so contrary in that ?

"Oh !!! But we are NOT SINNERS. WE are the people of God !!"
Arrogance is idolatry…..and Assyria and Babylon descended upon them….and they discovered what God was saying to them about them and what He would do if they refused Him, was absolutely true and it happened. This is not theory….its real.

The greatest majority of sexual sin is deliberate (including rape, paedophilia, adultery, pornography etc etc) and a smaller amount "situational", yet still deliberate---which mostly could have been critically evaluated in advance and avoided, if there was any fear of God in those so involved.

Deliberate sin of any kind against Holy God is serious. Deliberate ongoing sin against Holy God is perilous. It reveals a lack of self control re sin/temptation and a reckless disregard for the Holiness of God. It reveals an appalling lack of concern at sinning against Holy God.

This is dangerous ground indeed for all so conducting themselves, especially for those in ministry who REALLY ought to know better and be surrendered/consecrated to God in body, mind, soul, and spirit. They are the ones who are supposed to teach those in the pews not to engage in such dangerous sexual activity. In too many cases they are silent because they themselves are guilty of the same sexual sins….even sexual fantasies with others even of the same gender….

Do you think God winks at these, any, sins ? No He does not ! …..He calls them "detestable practices" that "defile" those who indulge in them. And they are abominable to Him, for they reek of the defilement of satan, and likely allegiance to him, more than to God.
Leviticus 18 : 24—30

ii. Confessing the sin of the RSA Church as "We…" Daniel 9, Ezra 9, Nehemiah 1

Instead of pointing fingers at other people true, contrite, prophetic prayer and prophetic repentance uses the word "We", which aligns the pray-er with the sin being confessed, even if they have not exactly been guilty of that same sin, but simply because the pray-er is a part of the greater Body of Christ. This is intercession and "we" identifies the pray-er with the rest of the Body, for we are one Body, for which he / she is praying.

Even though the Prophet Daniel was a holy man, he prayed, "We have sinned and done wrong" (Daniel 9:5ff) referring to all Israel and the sin of the fathers that caused God's anger at Israel to brutally take them to exile. We must stop blaming others and take personal, individual and corporate Church responsibility ourselves across all historical and current failures, for it is the sin of the Body of Christ that has got us into this position, inter alia :

The White Segment of the Church

I do not discount the unbelieving whites, but it is the Church who has the destiny of a town, city, province or nation in its hands, so I speak to the white segment of the RSA Church, then, and now. So it is for the "non white" segments of the RSA Church, too.

Whites held the political and economic power in South Africa for a long time, and mostly stayed silent during apartheid out of fear of the political security laws and security police; we were comfortable even though our brethren were definitely not, during apartheid, and even since it has been dismantled. We largely ignored the pain of our black, coloured, and Asian brothers and sisters in Christ, but also the plight of all prejudiced by apartheid : "It's the law…..!!!" as if that exculpated us from speaking out boldly and condemning it. (See Obadiah 6—15). Yes, a few did speak out against the racial laws. The majority were cowed and many tacitly supported these ungodly laws.

The collapse of the Dutch Reformed Church denomination subsequent to 1994 is a direct consequence of their direct complicity in upholding, and supporting apartheid, including through preaching, false "theology" supporting the fake "theology" that prejudice was Biblically supported. Not only did they willingly allow themselves to be captured by the politicians for the ends of apartheid, but actively enforcing it through their spiritual control over their congregations. As a spiritual consequence they are now captured. They are captured by the perverted, anti-Biblical homosexual lobby, and are forced by a High Court ruling to allow practicing homosexuals to minister with no restrictions. The irony of God here should not be lost on you.

Those who were captured by politicians are now captured by demonic powers that are enemies of Biblical truth and resorted to pagan courts to enforce their own demonic anti-Biblical agenda against the Dutch Reformed Church. The pagan RSA Courts do not have this competency to speak over the Church. However, this is a consequence of defiling sin by supporting apartheid. Let us not forget the rest of the white RSA Church has complicity too, in failing, or refusing to speak out against apartheid.
Have you repented, personally ?
(See Obadiah 6—15).

We reap what we sow…..

The anti-white "reverse" racism of today by the anc/sacp political party directed at whites through anti-white government legislation and vile political rhetoric/slogans is another spiritual consequence of this self-centred callousness of the white segment of the RSA Church (and whites in general during apartheid). It is not "just" the demonic realm getting uppity; there are specific reasons for this evil counter attack, allowed/brought to pass by God : consequences of the RSA Churches sin over many, many decades, or longer. The whole RSA Church has lost its position as the head of the country, and is now the tail because of its multiplied sin. See below…

We reap what we sow…

The Non-White Segment of the Church: A great many indigenous and other "non white" people (as they were designated under apartheid) have allowed their pain to turn into toxic bitterness/unforgivenness and hatred toward white people, instead of forgiving the betrayal by the politically cowed whites, especially Christian whites under apartheid. Their unforgiveness---(and continued ancestral worship in the indigenous black Church, and widespread practice of witchcraft)--- binds them to economic poverty and joblessness through the hands of the very political people who championed themselves as their "saviours", but they are now worse oppressors than the apartheid regime was. Spiritual and moral and economic poverty also come from bitterness.
We all reap what we sow…..

See 1 Corinthians 12 : 25, 26 : "…[25] so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. [26] If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it."

There was a callous dirth of the truth of this above passage evident from the white churches towards the non white segment of churches during apartheid. God is decidedly not pleased with this selfishness, which persists attitudinally amongst some today. Yes some did help and show compassion, but for the most : cowed into silence by the security police of the Nationalist Party government. Many African/coloured people, including church goers became "militantly racist" against whites---also most unlike Christians should be---and became "reverse" racist. Thus the RSA Church was separated, rent asunder on the basis of race by an evil government, and it still has very real unhealed wounds today. Two wrongs do not make it right. They simply entrench sin.

Who will stand up to organise to bridge this gap across the country in the Churches, through repentance ITO 2 Chronicles 7 : 14…?

"Heavenly Father, I intercede for the RSA Church, for each and every true born again believer in Christ, that You, in Your grace, loving kindness and great mercy will call each and every one of your true children to repent for our corporate sin as a whole against You and of their different demographic sectors' sin against the other demographic sectors of the RSA Church, and that this will not be a small private affair, but public; and that You would move us all to forgive the National Party, the Dutch Reformed Church, Hervormde Kerk, ANC and EFF et al for their roles in fomenting ongoing racial injustice. Father, only You can do this. In Jesus' Name I ask".

It requires a true, humble, determined man of God to pull it all through.

Obadiah, read it, its one chapter : Verses 6—15: … Pay attention to verses 6, 10, 15 especially,

"As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return on your own head".

"You reap what you sow…" Galatians 6 : 7, 8

All RSA Church demographic segments, note what is happening in RSA today, in reverse order, driven by the Hand of God as corrective discipline against the entire RSA Church, for we have ALL sinned against God from our own stances taken in the past, even now in the present the lack of conciliatory action condemns us all... but we hear not and remain defiant against God because our Biblically false presuppositions deafen us with the inability to understand what God reveals in the Bible about accountability for our sin, individual and corporate, and the pride of self is a real hard idol to defeat and throw away.

Too much candy floss “biblical” teaching leads to sickly faith, and a demonically selfish entitlement claim to comfort—“best life NOW”-- that satisfies us through the longing desires of the flesh, to heck with the lost going to a Christless eternity, or the widows suffering extreme privation, or the masses now even worse oppressed than during apartheid, or our brethren of other areas/colours struggling to support pastors, afford discipleship material.

SO MUCH seeking of forgiveness and giving forgiveness is still required between the churches of the different race groups in RSA : all were affected by apartheid. All sinned similarly against each other. All sinned against God. And unforgiveness leads to those people, those churches, and the national Church being handed over to the torturers until they pay back all they owe because of their sin, past and ongoing. The RSA Church is seriously weakened as a result. Many Churches in RSA are in this position, for they have not taken it upon themselves to repent and left it to the denominational leaderships, or someone else on their (lazy, ignorant) behalf.

See also Galatians 6 : 7, 8 and Obadiah vss 6—15.

Numbers 35:33: "Do not defile the land where you are. Bloodshed defiles the land, and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed there except by the blood of the one who shed it."

What can you do ?

Call on your cell groups, all different church groups, local churches in the area where you minister / live to join you in applying 2 Chronicles 7 : 14 weekly/bi-weekly/monthly in deep heartfelt personal repentance, and repentance on behalf of those who have gone before us in the faith for their contributions to the powerlessness of the RSA Church, and the seeking of God's Presence for His glory sake and for our transformational revival; and go forth to honour and obey God in certain trust, for He has given us His infallible Word : "It is written…".

2 Chronicles 7 : 14 sets out the serious principles that God expects to be applied by those repenting from their disobedience, disinterest in Him, idolatry by arrogance against Him and thereby, their apostacy. Dear Reader, THIS is where you start, and keep going…..

Share the link with family, friends, all across the country. Discuss this entire Letter in its different parts in your cell group / Bible study / whatever church groups you are in. Let GOD by His Spirit speak to you from His Word. Pray honestly, fervently for transformational revival in your congregation, suburb, town/city/province/nation, for when God reveals His Presence in manifest glory, no leg can stand, no voice can speak, but wail for our sin in repentance, on our faces. Then, when He is done with us, when He has purified us from our sin(s) we stand revived and in exceeding rejoicing go forth to show our love for Him through prayer, obedience, love for others/the lost and selfless humble ministry unto Him, for HIS glory alone.

This Letter to the RSA Church is an urgent call for her to return to her LORD in humility, confession, and repentance unto obedience in measure not yet expressed in and through our lives before, to glorify His Holy Name, and for all our good, even the entire country.

Part 5(b) of this Letter to the RSA Church (The Modern RSA Church's Ongoing Cowardice, / Callousness) follows next week, God willing.
